Her ability is well known, and places her in the first rank of dramatic readers. She has been heard by Mr. Taft, and has given many number of readings before people widely known and prominently identified with the social and political life in Washington.

Miss Wilson is a woman with a golden voice that portrays light and shadow in a degree that is very fascinating. She has a most compelling personality, and sways and moves her audience throughout her recital with the wonderful pictures that she draws with words about the story of people, besides being so very natural that one feels at once interested and well acquainted. Decidedly the most pleasing reading that Miss Wilson gave yesterday was "A Wicked Little Girl," a Texas woman. It was original and sparkling, and so very true to life and Miss Wilson's portrayal of it was

SHERIFF MERCER
VINN CONVENTION
Perry Brothers Must Give Indemnifying Bond to Secure Property.

Having lost out in the City Circuit Court yesterday morning, Romeo and Joseph Perry, proprietors of a saloon on East Marshall Street, brought a new proceeding in the Law and Equity Court yesterday afternoon in a further effort to secure possession of the dwelling house, 605 North Seventh Street.

The Perry brothers bought the house at a court sale, confirmed by the City Circuit Court, and secured from Judge Scott some time ago a writ of possession. The tenants, C. C. Dicken and Benjamin P. Fletcher and wife, claimed to have a lease on the premises, and threatened suit against the Sheriff if he ejected them. Sheriff Mercer demanded an indemnifying bond before proceeding, and this John R. Gayle, counsel for the Perry brothers, declined to furnish.

In the City Circuit Court yesterday morning Judge Scott sustained the demurrer of Sheriff Mercer and dismissed the Perry petition for a mandamus to compel the Sheriff to put them in possession of the house. Sheriff Mercer's position being fully sustained, Sheriff Mercer thereupon filed a report, showing that the tenants claimed a lease from the former owner, which lease he has never seen. The court ordered the Sheriff to execute the writ of possession when the plaintiff executes an indemnifying bond in the sum of $500.

NEW FRAUD INVENTED.
Londoners Get Money for Goods He Can't Sell.

London, February 2.—A fraud which as far as police records show, is entirely new, has been perpetrated at the expense of a householder in the West End of London. One morning this week a picture dealer, owner of the Georgian Gallery, 10, Grosvenor Street, was asked if he was prepared to buy immediately for cash a quantity of antique furniture and other articles. The dealer announced his readiness to consider the offer, and he was shown a number of articles offered to him, which he inspected at Mr. Woodhouse's house. He offered £100 for them. This offer was accepted by the man who had shown him over the house, who claimed to be Mr. Woodhouse's secretary, acting on his behalf, and he was given an open check for £100 and the balance in notes in gold.

It turned out that the house he had been shown was an offer to let furnished while Mr. Woodhouse was away. The supposed "secretary" had obtained an order to view it from a West End firm of house agents.

Later the dealer discovered that he had been deceived.

BETTER RAILROAD SERVICE.
Fochonites Business Men to Take Up Matter With Authorities.

Pebahon, Va., February 2.—A meeting of the Board of Trade and business men, held in the council chamber Saturday, was called to order by the chairman, Mr. J. H. Harrison, who appointed to wait on the railroad authorities and ask them to give this place better railroad service, as the connections made at Bluestone Junction with main line trains cause too great a delay to the traveling public. Harry Gross and John M. Newton were appointed on this committee.

A committee was appointed to wait on the railroad authorities and attempt to make a great white way of Centre Street, the town having installed a new lighting system.

SETS UNIQUE PRECEDENT.
Judge Leaves Case in Hands of Jury for One Month.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., February 2.—Judge Dan Harmon, of the First Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, has set an unique precedent in the law court here. He has set aside the case of the Jackson Blevins will case has twice come in and reported its failure to agree. Judge Harmon announced that he would adjourn court for one month, but would hold the jury to report upon this case. He instructed every juror to remain here one month here, and warned them not to discuss the case with anybody aside from their associates. He then ordered the penalty of imprisonment. Judge Harmon takes the view that the people are often put to unnecessary expense by hastily dismissing juries that have reported their failure to come to an agreement. His ruling in this case is the first of the kind ever reported in this region.

PRINCESS HAIRIE NOT RELATED TO SULTAN

Her Recent Activities Attract Considerable Amount of Attention.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY.

THE "Imperial Turkish Princess Hairie, cousin of the Sultan," whose activities in London during the recent peace conferences at St. James's Palace, have attracted a considerable amount of attention on the part of the English press and also of the London correspondent of several important American newspapers, is not imperial, not a Turk and not related, even in the most remote fashion, with either the Sultan or any other member of the reigning family at Constantinople.

She is a Tunisian; a daughter of the Tunisian Finance Minister Ben Ayad, who during the reign of Napoleon III. was accredited by the then Bey of Tunis to the court of the Tuileries. But eventually he fell into disgrace, and was forced to flee for his life to Malta. The Bey of Tunis confiscated his estates, for the recovery of which his daughter has ever since been suing both the Tunisian and French governments, declaring herself, however, ready to compromise her claims for the sum of $2,000,000, which, I need scarcely say, she has not the slightest chance of receiving.

Hairie, for that is her name, drifted with her father to Constantinople, where she became the wife of Ali Nouri, a Swede by birth, who had figured as Turkish consul at Athens, and later at Amsterdam, after which he became chief of Sultan Abdul Hamid's foreign press bureau at Constantinople. Like many other Turkish officials, he became suspected of being a convert to the Young Turk party, and in order to avoid arrest and exile to one of those remote places of Turkish banishment from which people never return, he fled with his wife first to Athens and then to his native land of Sweden, where his wife, who had been a considerable amount of attention by fleeing from Constantinople, the French blood in their veins rendering them unwilling any longer to submit to the restrictions of Oriental harem life. Escorted by their old French governess, they reached Belgrade, where they were met by a convert to Islam and died in high favor with the Padishah as Rehad Pasha. His son Nouri was educated in France and immediately on his return to Stambul entered the service of the Sublime Porte. He married a Turkish lady and had two daughters. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I learned of and started taking Eckman's Alternative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. Since that time I have had two slight attacks of pneumonia and I have resorted to no other medicine to effect a recovery.

I am at present in excellent health and feel that as long as I can obtain Eckman's Alternative, I have no fear of Consumption. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done.

(Signed) HOWARD L. KLOTZ.

Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. For sale by Owens & Minor Drug Company and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.—Advertisement.

Had Serious Lung Trouble—Now Well
Somehow there exists a vast amount of scepticism as to the possibility of curing Consumption. We state none but facts, and are sincere in what we assert. If we were afflicted with Tuberculosis, we should do precisely what we ask others to do—take Eckman's Alternative promptly and faithfully. The reason we should do this and warrant we have for asking all Consumptives to take it, is that we have the reports of many recoveries, one of which follows:
